

Jefferson Parish
Request for Bid
Clarification Document

Moore Medical LLC ("Moore") is pleased to submit its response to Jefferson Parish with the following clarifications:

Regarding Insurance:

Moore has adequate insurance to perform under this contract. Moore's use of self-insurance or captive insurance is deemed to meet all requirements set forth in any resulting contract. Please see the attached sample copy of our insurance certificate.

MCKESSON/MOORE CAPTIVE

Golden State Insurance Company (GSIC) is McKesson Corporation's (McKesson) and Moore's captive insurer which has been active for over 40 years. GSIC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of McKesson formed with the main objective of insuring certain risks of McKesson, its subsidiaries and affiliates. McKesson also maintains excess insurance with commercial insurers above the current primary $5,000,000 GSIC limit.¹

McKesson believes its decision to use a captive insurer and purchase excess insurance from third party commercial insurers is reasonable for its size and nature of its operations as well as consistent with the practices of other large public corporations.

You may find more information on McKesson and its public financial filings at

<http://investor.mckesson.com/reports>

¹McKesson like other corporations reviews its insurance annually to determine appropriateness of captive limit based on its risk management objectives.

Bids may be submitted for products of equal quality, provided brand names and stock numbers are specified. Complete product data may be required prior to award.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
