SALES AND OTHER TRANSFERS OF STOCK

A. (1) No stock in this corporation shall be transferred unless the stock shall have been first offered for sale to the corporation at the fair appraisal value thereof, and, if the corporation shall fail or refuse to accept the offer, to each of the other shareholders of this corporation.

(2) The offer shall be in writing and shall set forth the price and terms on which the stock is offered. It shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the President and Secretary of the corporation and to each stockholder at the address listed on the corporation books.

(3) The offeree shall have an option to purchase the stock to be transferred at the fair appraised value thereof determined as follows: at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as the offeror shall have been offered by a third person at arm's length acting in good faith. If the parties cannot so agree, the fair appraised value of common shares shall be fixed by two arbitrators. In the case of an offer, one arbitrator shall be appointed by the offering shareholder at the time of making the offer, and the other by the board of directors of the corporation at the time of acceptance of the offer. In the case of any option, one arbitrator shall be appointed by the optionee(s) at the time of exercise of the option, and the other by the registered shareholder, or by such shareholder's legal representative, within ten (10) days thereafter. If any party or parties obligated to appoint an arbitrator shall fail to do so within the time allowed therefor, the arbitrator appointed by the other party or parties shall proceed forthwith to fix the fair appraised value. If two arbitrators are appointed and cannot agree within twenty (20) days, they shall select a third, and a decision of any two of such three, to be rendered within twenty (20) days, shall be final. The cost of the arbitration shall be divided equally between, and paid by, the seller and the purchaser(s) of the subject shares.

(4) In the event of the acceptance of any such offer, the corporation shall, to the extent of its participation in the accepted offer, be obligated to redeem the number of shares involved, but not to exceed the number which it is then legally permitted to redeem, and the balance of such shares, if any, shall be prorated, as nearly as possible in proportion to their holdings, among the other shareholders who, within twenty (20) days after the mailing of notice of the availability of the shares, shall have agreed to purchase their portion thereof. If such offer is not accepted or any such option is not exercised, as the case may be, in its entirety, within sixty (60) days from the date of the event giving rise thereto, the subject shares may be transferred, without further regard for the provisions of this Article, at any time within, but not after expiration of the six-month period following the end of such sixty-day period.

(5) Title to common shares sold pursuant to this article shall be deemed to pass to the purchaser or purchasers, and the sale completed, on the thirtieth day following notice of acceptance of an offer or of exercise of an option, and the certificate or certificates representing the common shares sold shall be surrendered on or before such date (the "Sale Date"), duly endorsed for transfer, to the corporation, which, within ten (10) days after such date, shall issue new certificates in the name of the purchaser(s) and deliver them to the purchaser(s), if the purchase price has been paid in full; or shall, upon written request of the Seller or his legal representative, if the purchase price has not been paid in full, deliver such new certificates to the Seller or his legal representative, to be held in pledge, to secure payment of the purchase price, upon such terms and conditions as the seller or his legal representative and the purchaser(s) shall agree between themselves.

(6) The right to transfer stock shall not exist until the corporation and all existing stockholders either refuse in writing the offer so made, or waive the requirement of an offer in writing, or until they fail for a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of the written offer to accept it by compliance with the terms therein set forth. Regulations as to the formalities and procedures to be followed in effecting the transfer may be prescribed in the By-laws of the corporation.

B. Should the corporation be unable or unwilling for any reason to exercise its option as granted above, the option may be exercised by such stockholders as desire to exercise it, in the proportions in which these stockholders hold stock in the corporation.

C. After the expiration of the option period, no transfer at a price less than has been offered to the corporation and the other stockholders, or on terms or conditions varying from those stated in the letter notifying the corporation and the stockholders of a proposal to transfer, shall be valid, until the right shall have been offered to the corporation and the stockholders to purchase the stock proposed to be transferred at the precise price and on the precise terms and conditions which were offered to or by the stockholder who proposes to transfer his stock.

D. The stockholders in this corporation may make agreements, either in By-laws or by shareholder agreement, between themselves relative to the purchase, among themselves, of the stock of this corporation, in the event of (a) the dissolution, liquidation or bankruptcy of any corporate shareholder or (b) the death, divorce, insanity, retirement or disability of any individual stockholder, and in the event of a transfer of his stock by donation to the stockholder's spouse and linear descendants. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed with the Secretary or Secretary-Treasurer of this corporation, and the provisions of any such agreement shall be binding upon the persons or entities who are parties to it and their respective successors, heirs, administrators, legatees, executors and assigns.

E. Except as to a transfer on dissolution, liquidation or bankruptcy or on death or a gift of the stock of an individual stockholder to his spouse or linear descendants (which shall be controlled if at all be the By-laws or by a shareholder agreement), no sale, mortgage, pledge, conveyance, transfer, seizure, donation, sale under legal process or attachment, or by virtue of any pledge or hypothecation, and no other disposal of stock of any nature whatsoever shall have any effect as related to the corporation or its stockholders, nor shall it be valid in any fashion until the option period provided above shall have expired.

F. Should any transfer or alienation of common shares, voluntary, forced or otherwise, be effected without compliance with the provisions of this Article, the corporation and, to the extent not exercised by the corporation, the other shareholders, in proportion to their holdings, shall, in addition to their other rights hereunder, have an option to acquire the common shares so alienated at a price equal to the fair appraised value thereof or the actual consideration paid therefor, whichever is less, such option to be exercised by written notice at any time within ninety (90) days after the corporation and the other shareholders shall have gained knowledge of the occurrence of said transfer or alienation.

G. Pledges or other security transfers of common shares shall not be deemed transfers for purposes of this article, but sales or other transfers or acquisitions of ownership of common shares pursuant to foreclosure of pledges or other security transfers shall not be made unless the subject shares have first been offered to the corporation and its other shareholders in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

H. All certificates of stock representing common shares issued by the corporation shall contain a legend making reference to the provisions of this Article XII.

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

The corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each director and officer now or hereafter serving the corporation from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which he may be or become subject by reason of his now or hereafter being or having heretofore been a director or officer of the corporation and/or by reason of his alleged acts or omissions as such director or officer, whether or not he continues to be such officer or director at the time when any such claim or liability is asserted, and shall reimburse each such director and officer for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with defending any or all such claims or liabilities, including amounts paid or agreed to be paid in connection with reasonable settlements made before final adjudication with the approval of the Board of Directors whether or not he continues to be such director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, provided, however, that no director or officer shall be indemnified against any claim or liability arising out of his own bad faith, reckless disregard of his duties, gross negligence or willful misconduct or shall be indemnified against or reimbursed for any expense incurred in defending any or all such claims or liability or in settling the same unless in the judgement of the directors of the corporation the director or officer against whom such claims or liability is asserted has not been guilty of bad faith, reckless disregard of his duties, gross negligence or willful misconduct. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law and as may be set forth in any By-laws of the corporation. To the extent the rights and obligations of the corporation hereunder are inconsistent with the By-laws, if any, of the corporation, then the By-laws control and supersede any such provision hereof. Except as hereinabove limited, directors and officers shall be entitled to all protection that can legally be afforded them under R.S. 12:83, and any other rights to which they may be entitled as a matter of law.

ARTICLE IV.

SMALL BUSINESS STOCK

All stock issued under the terms of this original incorporation is to be considered as "Small Business Corporation Stock" issued under the provisions of Title 26, U.S.C.A. 1244 of the U.S. Revenue Code, and said stock is to be issued in accordance with the terms, conditions and limitations of said Statute, which is hereby established as the plan of the incorporator(s) herein.
