Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-9 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement that specifies the following five items:

- The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
- The treaty article addressing the income.
- The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
- The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
- Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

Certification Instructions. You must check out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:
1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.
In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.
Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.
For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, • A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or • Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(b) and 7(a) for additional information.
Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

CONTRACTOR QUESTIONS

Q-1) Is this a Davis Bacon/certified payroll project?

A-1) No

Q-2) Who is to pay for testing?

A-2) Jefferson Parish will hire and pay for an independent testing lab. See SP.08, Page SP-1 of the Specifications.

Q-3) Special Provision #42 – Clean & TV Existing Storm Drain and Sewer Lines and Pay Item S-906: Are both the storm drain and sewer lines included in Pay Item S-906?

A-3) There are separate pay items for storm drain and sewer. Item No. S-003, “Pre-Construction Pipe Cleaning and Video Inspection (Existing storm sewer lines 24” and under)” is for storm drains only. Item No. S-906, “Pre-Construction and Post-Construction Pipe Cleaning and Video Inspection”, is for sewer only.

Q-4) Will contractor be responsible for post-video of all new drain and sewer lines?

A-4) Post-video of all new drain and sewer lines is not required. However cleaning may be required as directed by the Engineer or the Parish. Payment for any cleaning of new storm drain or sewer will be borne by the contractor.

Q-5) Will an engineer-stamped trench box be allowed in lieu of shoring for the drainage construction?

A-5) The contractor will be allowed to dictate his own means and methods of Construction, however he must satisfy all aspects of the construction plans and specifications, while maintaining current OSHA standards.

Q-6) The plans don't show the depth of the water lines, neither for the one to remove or the new one to install. What is the depth of those lines?

A-6) Existing waterlines are to be assumed at 3'-4' of cover. New waterlines are to be installed as per sheet 302 of the Construction Plans and Appendix C of the Specifications.

Q-7) Most sewer crossings are composed of a Ductile Iron section and a PVC C-900 section (example page 15) but the limits of each section are often unclear. What is the intend for both type of lines so we can evaluate how much of each will be installed? If the PVC section is only a few feet long, would it be switch to DI to avoid an additional DI/PVC transition?

A-7) See sheets 30-39 of the Construction Plans. Each conflict box detail depicts the length of ductile iron pipe. The contractor shall use PVC-C900 beyond the limits of ductile iron pipe shown.

Q-8) Is crushed concrete acceptable for bedding?

A-8) Item No. 302-02-02080, "Class II Base Course (6" Thick) (Stone)" shall be stone only. Item No. 726-01-00100, "Bedding Material" for storm drains shall be per sheet No. 305 of the construction plans.

Q-9) What is the compaction required for the #57 bedding?

A-9) Item No. 302-02-02080 "Class II Base Course (6" Thick) (Stone) shall be 95% (min) of Maximum Density (DOTD TR418). Item No. 726-01-00100, "Bedding Material" #57 crushed Limestone/Recycled PCC shall be at 75% of Relative Density (ASTM-D-7253 & D 4254).

Q-10) Can a bid item be added for Pre-Construction video and photos?

A-10) A new bid item has been included. Item No. S-007, "Site Survey". Documentation of the interior of residences or buildings is required. Permission of the land owner to access the interior of residence or building is required and the responsibility of the Contractor.

Q-11) Does the Parish have any areas available for the Construction job site trailer?

A-11) No, Contractors from previous phases utilized vacant lots/areas with written permission from landowner.

Q-12) Will this project require a flagman for Temporary Traffic Control?

A-12) No, not specifically, however, there may be times when a flagger is required when mobilizing materials to jobsite.

Q-13) Can a pre cast option be used for the conflict boxes?

A-13) No, pre-cast boxes will not be allowed for "conflict" boxes.

Q-14) What type of Geotextile fabric is required for the roadway and storm drainage?

A-14) Non-woven Class D fabric is required for the roadway. See sheet 305 of the Construction Plans for the allowable Geotextile fabric for storm drainage.

Q-15) Would the contractor be allowed to use a portion of Jefferson Parish property, at the water plant facility, located between Avenue C and Avenue D, to stage the required office trailer for this project's resident inspector?

A-15) No, Contractors from previous phases utilized vacant lots/areas with written permission from landowner.

Q-16) In Section "SP.42- Clean and TV existing Storm Drains and Sewer Lines," of the Special Provisions, seems to be an area of concern for the Owner, and they have created two (2) bid items:

S-003: Pre-Construction and Post Construction Pipe Cleaning and Video Inspection (Existing Storm Sewer Lines 24" and Under)

S-906: Pre-Construction and Post Construction Pipe Cleaning and Video Inspection (Sanitary Sewer)

Would the Owner consider making a bid item for a "Pre-Construction of Residential and Public Buildings Immediate to the Work Area", since the size of the excavation will affect at

Would the Owner consider making a bid item for a “Pre-Construction of Residential and Public Buildings Immediate to the Work Area”, since the size of the excavation will affect at least 50% or more of the public right-of-way? The residential buildings are very dense in number and the majority of them are non-pile supported structures, on brick piers. In the Special Provisions, Section SP-52: “Site Survey” you first sentence states “Prior to mobilization on the jobsite, the Contractor shall conduct a detailed survey that shall include pre-construction photographs and video of the jobsite, surrounding areas, and access and/or haul routes,” and the closing sentence “There shall be No Measurement or Direct Payment for services required by this provision”. Since this provision was such a concern in the Special Provisions, would you consider creating a bid item similar to bid items S-003 and S-906, and include provisions to document the interior of residences and buildings?

A-16) See response to Q-10.

Q-17) Under the headings and details for Pipe Bedding Materials and Class II Base Course, you call out limestone or stone to be used. Is “Recycled Portland Cement Concrete” of the proper gradations an acceptable, alternative material for Pipe Bedding and/or Class II Base Course?

A-17) Recycled PCC can be used as an alternate for pipe bedding, however, it cannot be used for Class II Base Course.

Q-18) Bid Items: 702-01-00100-A thru 702-01-00100-J Junction Boxes (Conflict Box “A thru J”) and Item 702-02-00100, Manholes (MH-06) are detailed on Plan Sheets: 24-29 (Junction Box Details), 30-38 (Conflict Box Details), and 208 (MH-06) as being intended to be “Poured-In-Place Structures”, and the question was asked at the pre-bid meeting if “Precast Structures” were an approved alternate method of construction. The project engineer’s response was that due to the possible unknown existing utility lines that precast structures may be difficult to use. Therefore, on Plan Sheet 304, is a detail for “Jefferson Parish, Department of Engineering’s Conflict Structures”, which are a combination of brick walls and concrete bottom and deck slabs. Can Contractor choose this method of construction to build the “Junction Boxes (Conflict Box A thru J)” and use precast concrete structures for the “Manholes (MH-06)”?

A-18) Pre-Cast structures will not be allowed for conflict boxes, manholes and junction boxes. Contractor shall use the details provided on sheet 30-39 of the Construction Plans for the construction of the conflict boxes.

Q-19) On Bid Item: 701-03-01000 Storm Drain Pipe (15” RCP); instead of 15” RCP can the contractor use 15” A-2000? 15” A-2000 is on the State QPL and also has been installed on Jefferson Parish Drainage projects in the past.

A-19) A-2000 is an allowable alternative for pipes 36” and under. However, keep in mind PVC (A-2000) pipe will not be allowed under the roadway section. Please see sheet 305 of the Construction Plans for allowable materials and PVC pipe trench details.

Q-20) On Bid Item 740-02-00100 Utility Oversight and Coordination, will a unit price be provided?

A-20) No

Q-21) Will Builder’s Risk and Owner’s Protective Liability Insurance be required for this project?

A-21) No

Q-22) The trench details page 305 show a PVC pipe for 36" and under, but the bid form item only mentions RCP. Can PVC pipe be used for up to 36"?

A-22) See response to Q-19.

Q-23) What are the bedding requirements under the junction/conflict boxes A to J?

A-23) See sheet 16 of the Construction Plans.

Q-24) We feel that video-recording of the neighborhood houses is needed due to the scale of the excavation. Would an additional item be added for this?

A-24) See response to Q-10.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partner's share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
