Midwest Pricing Structure:

For almost half our products, the manufacturer is the one who dictates the selling price, and we follow their pricing structures accordingly. Due to these agreements with our manufacturers, we are unable to provide firm or fixed pricing for the duration of a contract. Some will offer an updated price list, but most cannot offer any documentation of their price changes for us to pass along to the client.

We would like to offer Jefferson Parish a 13% discount on our unlocked manufacturer items. We have indicated the items on the bid that qualify for this 13% discount and have listed a 0.00% for any of the items on this bid proposal that would be considered locked items and would not qualify for the discount. Merck has also agreed to allow for a 35% discount on the Nobivac vaccines.

Please let us know if you have any additional questions.

Payment:

Currently Midwest Veterinary Supply, Inc does not offer an early payment discount option.

Addition:

Question: When it asks for the unit price is it asking for a per dose/pill price or a price per carton/bottle/tray (the unit it is sold as)?

Answer: All items listed in bid are requesting discount percentage off for units as they are sold.

Question: When there is an item requested like Bravecto, Advantage Multi, and Nobivac; are you only wanting that one item that is specified or would you be wanting other sizes or types? If other sizes or types are needed can there please be a space to provide those options as well, since prices would vary for different sizes and vaccines.

Answer: Yes, discount is to include all items, this goes for all items listed in the bid.

Question: When we quote a unit price and totals is it supposed to be quoted as the list price or the price after the discount % has been applied?

Answer: Bid is for discount percent on each category. Submittals would be just be listing the discount given for that group/line item.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
