Education: Degree(s)/Year/Specialization:

Bachelor of Science-Criminal Justice/May 2000

Masters of Arts-Mental Health Counseling/December 2007/Psychotherapy

Other experience and qualifications relevant to the proposed Project:

Participated in a COHORT offered through LSUHSC LA Evidence to Practice and was formally trained in Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy. This training included an initial web based training, a face-to-face 2 day training, 1 year of supervision, case presentation, and a final competency test achieved with a score of over 80%. Completion of this COHORT has allowed full implementation and offering of TF-CBT to client who present with diagnosed and/or complex traumas. Adherence and monitoring of Program Fidelity is supported through a trained trainer/consultant, my trainer is Kelly Wilson, LCSW.

NDC II Child & Family Services endorses the use of evidence based practice to assure safety, consistent, and cost effective services to at risk youth in the metro New Orleans area. It is the mission of NDC II to provide Psychotherapies of higher quality and more accountability, as well as the enhancement of the health and well-being of the individuals served.

NDC II Child & Family Services LLC utilizes an intake and assessment process to explore presenting problems, diagnosed, and screen for trauma. NDC II Child & Family Services LLC utilizes a formal BioPsychoSocial Assessment for gathering information for diagnosis. Trained Counselor administers appropriate screening (Child & Adolescent Trauma Screen, CES Depression Measure, Kiddie-SADS, etc.) to explore the appropriateness of TF-CBT services. These screenings are administered at the beginning of services, during services, and at the conclusion of services to measure client's affect and response to trauma.

NDC II Child & Family is committed to collect necessary data to measure program effectiveness. This collection of data includes tracking and analyzing demographic data of program participants, referral management, attendance monitoring, identification and monitoring of key trends(ex: recidivism rates, program effectiveness, success stories, etc.)
