RE: Application to provide various professional legal services to Jefferson Parish

Dear Ms. Johnston:

In connection with the above referenced matter, enclosed please find our firm's Legal Services Questionnaire and Statement of Qualifications.

All work in connection with this project would be performed at the firm's office located at 3445 N. Causeway Blvd., Suite 736, Metairie, LA 70002. The firm's office has been at this location for 18 years and has been located in Jefferson Parish for 34 years.

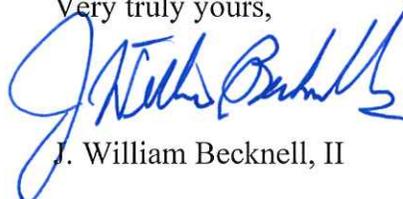

J. William Becknell, II and Allison Becknell will be the lead attorneys in connection with services performed by the firm on behalf of Jefferson Parish.

Currently, our firm is under contract with the Parish to provide legal services in connection with special tax elections to be held in the Parish. Our firm is also currently under contract with the Parish to provide legal services to assist the Parish relative to the issuance of bonds/notes for the purpose of assistance with any and all funding and/or refunding opportunities.

We trust that you will find that all past and current work performed by our firm on behalf of the Parish has been or will be completed both timely and to the Parish's complete satisfaction. Furthermore, please note that the firm has not participated in any adversarial legal proceedings against the Parish.

If you need further information or have any questions, please call me at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

J. William Becknell, II

STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

Response to Question F:

The Becknell Law Firm, APLC has experience in commercial and governmental law including representation of various municipalities and governmental bodies as legal counsel in connection with elections and as Bond Counsel in numerous bond issues, drafting ordinances for projects needing legislative approval by city and parish councils, representation of various clients in connection with real estate, zoning and bank financing transactions, and representation of municipal bond underwriters and banks serving as trustee in connection with bond issues.

The firm is based in Metairie, Louisiana and is listed in the Bond Buyer's Municipal Market Place ("The Red Book"). Members of our firm have been involved in bond work on behalf of Jefferson Parish, the City of Kenner, the City of Gretna, the City of New Orleans and other municipalities since approximately 1983. Attorneys with the firm have specialized in Municipal Bond and Local Governmental Law, especially the structuring and drafting of all documents involved in bond issues. All of these projects have been completed on a timely basis.

In addition to the firm's experience in governmental law, bank financing transactions, real estate and commercial law, our expertise includes experience in the following aspects of the election process and the issuance of tax exempt bonds:

1. Structuring and scheduling the issuance of debt instruments, including refunding bonds secured by ad valorem taxes, sales and use taxes and other revenues for the state, parishes, municipalities, school boards and other political subdivisions.
2. Drafting trust indentures, bond resolutions, escrow agreements, bond purchase agreements, agreements among underwriters and other related agreements and documents.
3. Preparing official statements containing statistical and financial data and general information relating to the sale of debt instruments in compliance with GFOA guidelines.
4. Interacting on state and national levels with attorneys, investment bankers and underwriters, bank trustees, credit facility providers and credit rating agencies.

5. Representing clients before the State Bond Commission, rating agencies and public forums to present and explain proposed financings.
6. Determining sources of revenue available to secure debt, the payment of maintenance and operation expenses of public projects and the costs and expenses of bond issues.
7. Rendering opinions relating to the legality of bonds and their tax exempt status.
8. Preparing legislation for clients and attending legislative committee hearings.
9. Preparation of Arbitrage Certificates and Tax Compliance Certificates for purposes of complying with Section 148 of the 1986 Internal Revenue Code, as amended, relating to "Arbitrage Bonds".
10. Preparing all legislation, State Bond Commission applications, Secretary of State applications and Proces Verbals in connection with local governmental elections.
