CLARIFICATIONS.

Question: What is "wholesaler's" pricing? Traditionally manufacturers provide a retail price list. Vendors would typically provide this list with the bid submission package and there would be a provision in the bid price submission to offer a discount percentage from this published price.

Answer: Wholesaler's pricing is the cost of a good sold by a wholesaler.

Question: Since no revisions at all were made to the item descriptions to provide make, model, size, etc. then it would still be necessary to disassemble each item to confirm parts and seal dimensions, etc. needed for repair prior to providing an estimate to the parish. Is this what's expected of the vendor?

Answer: In comparison to the previous bid, revisions have been made to this solicitation. The Parish requires disassembly as appropriate and as requested.

Question: Would the parish provide the make, model and other pertinent info on the item when it is sent to the vendor for repair?

Answer: Yes

Sincerely,
